

A PATH TO REJUVENATION

WWW.BARREFLYLDN.COM/ESCAPETOTUSCANY

SITTING QUIETLY OFF THE COUNTRY ROAD, VILLA CECCONI OFFERS HISTORY, TRANQUILITY, AND LUXURY.

Villa Cecconi is spread over three stone buildings - an original medieval watchtower forms the main guest villa, and a second, terraced villa provides the remaining guest accommodation, with a final stone cottage for staff. Each part of the property has been carefully restored, retaining its original exposed stone walls, terracotta tiles and wooden beamed ceilings. All rooms are en suite, and offered as single, private accommodation with queen-sized beds, though some can also be shared between two.

GET SOME 'YOU TIME'

*Excursion days may not incllude an evening class, but will incllude both class options in the morning. A final agenda will be provided 14 days before departure.

LUXURY. EXPERIENCE. (HEALTHY) INDULGENCE.

A typical day on your Tuscan retreat involves all of the above.

Each day* will include a sunrise and an evening fitness class - barre and yoga (these will swap time slots each day - typically 8am and 6pm).

At least one (usually 2 - 3) meals prepared by our chef will be served at the villa, either at the main dining room in the clocktower, or at one of our outdoor garden tables.

The retreat will include two excursions: one city break to Siena, and another to a local winery and art gallery (Castello di Ama), followed by shopping and dinner in Radda in Chianti - a spectacular hillside town with sweeping views across the Chianti hills.

Other activities include a cooking class, optional spa treatments, a final dinner and 'sparkle party', plus plenty of free time to relax, regroup, and enjoy the incredible Tuscan countryside.

FEED THE BODY AND THE SOUL

With a menu written by BNC-certified nutritionist, Nesse, and our private chef, Charlotte, your health and happiness will be served up daily.

Though final menus are still being confirmed, a continental breakfast with fresh smoothies will be served daily in the villa. Lunchtime at Villa Cecconi will consist of light, healthy salads, fresh fruit, and a glass of chianti from a local vineyard (optional, but highly recommended).

But dinnertime at Villa Cecconi is when the real magic happens... Fresh pasta dishes, beautiful cheeses, abundant salads, and traditional (and some not-so-traditional) desserts will be on the menu. As will the option of a glass (or three) of SuperTuscan wines from our favourite award-winning local winery - all wines selected by Nesse, who spent years working in luxury Italian wines.

Please note: ALL FOOD served at Villa Cecconi will be vegetarian. We promise - you won't miss meat for a moment. But if you do, you have two opportunities to sample Tuscany's 'fleshier' delights, during offsite dinners in Radda and in Siena.

THE WINE

Ama in Chianti, 53013 Gaiole in Chianti SI, Italy

A TASTE OF HISTORY IN EVERY SINGLE GLASS.

Ama was owned by the Firidolfi family during the Holy Roman Empire. The castle, which stands in the denomination, was probably destroyed in the fifteenth century during the Aragonese invasions in the Chianti area.

In the early 1700s new dwellings were built, using the same stones, in the exact same spot where the castle had originally stood. Hence, the construction of the villas belonging to Pianigiani and Ricucci families, which now comprise the Castello di Ama estate headquarters.

Today, the villa is a beacon in the region - not just of award-winning wines - but of art, modern architecture, and sympathetic restoration. The family believes that winemakers are great artists in themselves, and so have embraced art in all its forms within the winery itself.

We will be taking a tour of the stunning Ama vineyard and sampling some of their most popular wines. Followed by a lovely light lunch in their 18th century dining room.

Some people travel across oceans just to see this vineyard.

For you... it'll be just another day in Tuscany.
